Some of the Details of the New Line.

It Will Go From Chicago to New Orleans—Part of Rock Island.

Chicago, June 24—The Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans Railway company will be the name of the Rock Island Frisco extension to New Orleans, and this road will take in the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern and the New Orleans extension and terminals, making a system of about 1500 miles.

The system will form a thorough line from Chicago to New Orleans, and a water level line from St. Louis south, and it should be an important factor for the New Orleans trade and a strong competitor of the Illinois Central and Louisville and Nashville.

It may be decided to turn the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf, about 1000 miles, into the new system, which road would prove a valuable feeder for New Orleans business.

The joint use of the tracks between the Frisco and Gould properties of 800 miles of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern will serve the purpose of the new Rock Island company as well as an independent line, as all the Rock Island needs is a connecting link for its through business to New Orleans.

It is proposed to exchange the securities of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern for those of the new company, and at the same time an amount of new securities will be issued sufficient to provide for the New Orleans extension and terminals, one-half of which will be owned by the Southern railway.

LICENSED TO MARRY.
A marriage license was yesterday afternoon issued Albert Peggle, of the county, aged 21 to Lillie Dowdy, of the county, age 17. It will make the first marriage of both.

Dinner is served at noon and supper at 6 o'clock. There is a dining tent, with a long wooden table furnished with tin cups, plates, knives and forks. The cooking is done on iron rods placed over a trench, in which a fire is kindled. The bill of fare consists of bacon, ham, eggs, beef, vegetables, coffee, milk and sometimes a dessert for dinner. The day is begun and ended with Bible reading, and in the evening just before bedtime stories are told. The boys sleep on the ground under a tent. An oilcloth is first spread on the ground. A blanket is placed over this and another blanket is placed over cover.

The campers will return home Saturday evening.

Miss Davis and Miss Sanders, of the party who visited the camp Tuesday, were guests Tuesday of the Misses Irwin, who are well known here, in their pretty Kuttawa home.

OFFICERS OF THE MILITARY COMPANY SOON TO RECEIVE THEM.

The state of Kentucky has notified Captain James Caldwell and his officers that he will soon be presented with a new set of uniforms for the officers. Paducah has just secured new uniforms but the dress of the officers has been changed and the present from the state will save the officers much expense. This is good news to the officers and is also an excellent compliment.

1,000 TO BE PROMOTED.

Chicago, June 24—One thousand Chicago postoffice clerks will be promoted July 1.

NEW UNIFORMS

THE WRECK AGAINST FEIRFEX CRAIG.

For refusing to support his child, was dismissed, as the violation seems to have been unintentional. He has brought suit for divorce, but the case has never been tried, and his wife lives on Court street, where the father objects to the child's being kept. He says he will support it if it is taken to a suitable place, but otherwise not. The court advised him to prosecute the divorce suit and get the child.

James McNulty was fined $10 and costs for violation of the Sabbath.

Annie Singleton, colored, who is an old offender and is such a frequenter of the prisoners' dock that the negro spectators giggled when the court asked her if she had ever been there before, pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly and throwing a brick through Mr. A. Denker's showcase. She was fined only $25 and costs.

Jennie Lester and Sam Phillips, charged with stealing a watch, were held to answer, and others may be implicated in the theft before the case is finished.

ANOTHER LOG CABIN.

R. B. PHILLIPS WILL BUILD A COUNTRY HOME IN ARCADIA.

Another country home is to be added to Paducah's already large colony in Arcadia. Plans are being made by Architect William Bradford for a log cabin to be erected by Mr. R. B. Phillips between the Bowell place and The Pines. It will not be built before next spring.

It will be constructed of hewn logs and will have rustic porches. There will be seven rooms on the first floor and several in an attic. All modern conveniences will be included.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have occupied The Pines in connection with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friedman and Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace for several months.

The trains were freight No. 151, engine No. 24, in charge of Conductor J. W. McCaugh, Engineer Charles Underwood and Fireman Steinberg, and No. 196, engines Nos. 166 and 22, No. 196 being a double-header, in charge of Conductor J. H. Fink, Engineer E. Shegog and Fireman T. C. Anderson on No. 22 and Engineer Tom J. Miller and Fireman Tom Grammon on 166. No. 1164 is a total wreck and was knocked a distance from the track. The tanks of engines 22 and 24 were total wrecks and one car of train No. 196 was totally wrecked. Nine cars of No. 151 were wrecked, the remainder of the train escaping injury.

All engineers jumped and saved themselves from probable fatal injuries, and the only man missing is Ed Johnson, a colored brakeman who was on the tank of No. 1164. He has not been found and it is thought he was killed in the wreck and his remains covered by the debris of the wreckage.

Fireman Grammon of Louisville is perhaps the worst injured, having a shoulder dislocated and his body badly cut and bruised in several places. Fireman Underwood of Memphis sustained slight injuries about the head in striking, his scalp being lacerated in several places. Engineer Shegog's back was wrenched and Fireman Steinberg was bruised about the body in striking. Conductor Fink escaped with a slight cut behind the left ear. Engineer Miller had a lip cut and several bad bruises about the body, but all came in on No. 121, the accommodation train, having not been too badly injured to walk, except Grammon, who was kept at Dawson under the care of the railroad physician. He will be brought here as soon as he is able to be moved.

William Martin, a colored brakeman, jumped and sustained injuries about the lower limbs. His legs were cut by running into a barbed wire fence.

Engines Nos. 22 and 24 locked together and will have to be brought together. The wreck was one of the worst seen on this division in some time and the loss to the I. O. will amount to a great deal.

The cause of the accident is supposed to lie in the fact that both engineers tried to take opposite switches and neither succeeded. They met while running very fast and the escape of the engineers and train crews is considered miraculous. Another cause given is that No. 151 was running ahead of time, but the real cause will be determined in the investigation.

The local wrecker was sent out from here last night and is still working on the wreck. The fast Louisville passenger train, No. 101, was delayed many hours, not arriving until 7 o'clock this morning, running thirteen hours late.

A coal car broke down at Norton, Ky., near Louisville, yesterday afternoon and delayed the fast passenger train No. 101 several hours.

HANDSOME INCREASE.

Mother

Lost Reason After LaGrippe.

Daughter Had Frequent Spasms.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Them Both.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is a specific for nervous disorders. It removes the cause and effects a speedy and permanent cure.

"I feel it is my duty to let you know that my medicines have cured my little girl of nine, of spasms. She commenced having them at the age of three. Our family doctor said she would outgrow them but she did not. We took her to another physician who said her trouble was epileptic fits in a mild form. He did her no good either. She was so nervous she could hardly walk. As I had already used Dr. Miles' Nervine and found it a good remedy for myself I commenced giving it to my child. I gave her in all ten bottles of the Nervine and one of the Blood Purifier. That was over two years ago and she has not had an attack since we commenced the treatment. She is no longer troubled with nervousness and we consider her permanently cured. I enclose her picture. My mother-in-law lost her reason and was insane for three months from the effects of LaGrippe. Six bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine cured her. My sister has also taken it for sick headache with good results. We all thank you very much for your good medicines and kind advice. I don't think there is any other medicine half so good. I send my daughter's photograph which you may see what a sweet little girl lives out in Arkansas." —MRS. HANNAH BASKETT, Springdale, Ark.

THE NORTON CONTEST

Nothing Ever Heard of it in Louisville.

The Rumor Is Not Credited There—Nothing Known in Paducah About It.

IS PROBABLY A "SMOKE-UP"

No stock is taken in Paducah in the "smoke-up" sent out from Paducah about a contest of the Norton will by local heirs and others. Nothing seems to be known of it here. Yesterday's Louisville Herald says:

"The announcement that the sixteen male heirs of Capt. W. F. Norton, Sr., will contest the will of the late Capt. Norton, Jr., on the ground that the provisions of the will of the elder Norton had not been carried out, was a surprise to the executors of the younger Norton's will, John W. Barr and George W. Norton. Neither of them had heard that any contest was contemplated, and both of them last night refused to make any statement for publication. Nor had Dr. J. B. Marvin, president of the board of trustees of the Louisville Baptist Orphans' Home, the principal beneficiary under the will, heard anything about a contest being planned.

"I have not heard about a contest, and I do not care to make any statement tonight," was all that George W. Norton would say last night. "This is a private matter, and it would not look right for me to talk about it, you see, so you must excuse me."

"From a prominent lawyer who has often acted in the capacity of legal adviser of the Norton family the following statement was obtained:

"While I had not heard anything regarding a contest by the sixteen male heirs of W. F. Norton, Sr., I do know that that is the number of heirs of the senior Norton who are now living in various parts of the country, and I do know that several years ago Captain Norton, Jr., bought up the contingent claims of these sixteen male heirs in order that the estate might not be complicated by the existence of these claims. I fail to recall, if I ever knew, what any of the amounts paid or the aggregate amount spent in settling these claims were, but I know that deeds and conveyances were recorded. I believe that the claims of the heirs were fully settled by the deals that were made with the late Captain Norton, and I do not think that any contest at this time would amount to anything. I have no doubt whatever that Captain Norton was in his right mind when he made his will and I think that the statement that he was unduly influenced was ridiculous. He had paid the heirs under his father's will what they wanted for their contingent claims, and why should he be influenced against them? The heirs have no chance, in my mind."

"Another fact that is said to be against the heirs is that Mrs. W. F. Norton, widow of the senior W. F. Norton, was the one who left the entire estate to her son, W. F. Norton, Jr., she having received it from her husband, W. F. Norton, Sr.

"The exact amount of the estate may never be made public unless the heirs who now threaten to contest the will are able to prove their case in court, for in his will Capt. Norton expressly stated that he wished no appraisement made or any bond required of his cousin, George W. Norton, or John W. Barr, Jr., the two executors appointed by him."

CLOTHING CAUGHT

NARROW ESCAPE OF A VENERABLE MAN YESTERDAY.

Dr. Daley was called to the home of Mr. George Shae, near Wallace park, late yesterday afternoon to dress painful burns received by the venerable gentleman in quite a peculiar manner. He is about 76 years old and for some time has been bedridden. Yesterday while lighting his pipe a spark ignited the bed clothing and he was painfully buried in the side before assistance could reach him. His wife heard his cries and threw water on the blaze, which fortunately was extinguished before Mr. Shae was seriously burned.

Mr. R. O. Bard, of Louisville, who was here two years ago in the U. S. recruiting service, left this morning for Eddyville to visit. He was accompanied by his wife on his visit here.

ALL WERE ELECTED

Teachers Chosen as Per Program Last Night.

Board of Education Transacts Its Regular Routine Business.

CHANGES IN THE GRADES

The board of education met last night in adjourned session and held the annual election of teachers. The causes held the preceding night is virtually the election, but the board has to go through the formality of an election after the causes. Last night all the teachers chosen the night before were duly elected.

The vacancy in the colored schools was filled by the election of Mary Overby.

The payroll for June was allowed. It is desired to furnish the assembly chamber in the high school building and the building committee was instructed to investigate the cost of the improvements needed, and report at the next meeting.

The district school committee was notified to furnish the two new rooms made necessary by the increased attendance in the schools, the additions being made at the High school building.

It was decided to transfer the Eighth grade from Jefferson building to the Washington building and leave more room at the Jefferson school for the primary grades.

It was voted to place the newly elected teachers at the regular meeting in August.

CHAMPION BEEF EATER.

FORMER MAYOR VAN WYCK RETAINS TITLE OF CHIEF GLUTTON.

New York, June 24.—Former Mayor Robert Van Wyck retains the title of the champion beef eater of Greater New York. Effort to beat his reported record of two years ago of eight and three-quarter pounds at one sitting failed at a contest just held in Williamburg. The contestants were Michael Schapap and N. Oschmann. Fully 500 Brooklynites watched the contest. The time limit was one hour and forty minutes. Schapap took the lead at the second stake, holding it until the finish, when it was announced that he had eaten, in addition to a hundred clams and crackers, five and three-quarter pounds of steak, fifty oysters, two loaves of bread, a bunch of asparagus and tea crab.

OVERRULED MOTION

CASE NOT TRANSFERRED FROM BENTON TO FEDERAL COURT.

A motion was made by the railroad company yesterday in circuit court at Benton, Ky., before Judge Campbell to transfer the case of the Gregory administrator, against the Illinois Central for $20,000 to the federal court here. The damages are for the death of Mr. Gregory, who was killed in Marshall county, but as Engineer Beam is made a party to the suit and did not join the motion, it was overruled.

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

BOSTON, MASS., 155 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.

After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the tight step and dragged along weary instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and coldness in my feet. My husband and I took medicine to kill me a dozen women, but it had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well. I am happy to give you this endorsement.

SUMMER RHEUMATISM

Every season has its own diseases, but Rheumatism belongs to all, for when it gets well entrenched in the system, and joints and muscles are saturated with the poison, the aches and pains are coming and going all the time, and it becomes an all-the-year-round disease; an attack coming as quickly from sudden chilling of the body when overheated, a fit of indigestion or exposure to the damp, Easterly winds of Summer as from the keen, cutting winds, freezing atmosphere and bitter cold of Winter.

Rheumatism never comes by accident. It is in the blood and system before a pain is felt. Some inherit a strong predisposition or tendency; it is born in them; but whether heredity is back of it or it comes from imprudent and careless ways of living, it is the same always and at all seasons. The real cause of Rheumatism is a polluted, sour and acid condition of the blood, and as it flows through the body deposits a gritty, irritating substance or sediment in the muscles, joints and nerves, and it is these that produce the terrible pains, inflammation and swelling and the misery and torture of Rheumatism. No other disease causes such pain, such wide-spread suffering. It deforms and cripples its thousands, leaving them helpless invalids and nervous wrecks.

When neglected or improperly treated, Rheumatism becomes chronic, the pains are wandering or shifting from one place to another, sometimes sharp and cutting, again dull and aggravating. The muscles of the neck, shoulders and back, the joints of the knees, ankles and wrists, are most often the seat of pain. Countless liniments and plasters are applied to get relief, but such things do not reach the poisoned blood; their effect is only temporary; they are neither curative nor preventive. The blood must be purified, and all irritating matter removed from the circulation before permanent relief and a thorough cure is effected, and no remedy does this so certainly and so quickly as S. S. S. It contains not only purifying and tonic properties, but solvent qualities as well, all these being necessary in eradicating the poison and making a complete and lasting cure of Rheumatism. S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all irritating matter and the acid particles are dissolved and filtered out of the system, thus relieving the muscles and joints and removing all danger of future attacks. Under its tonic effect the nervous system regains its normal tone and the appetite and digestion improve, resulting in the upbuilding of the general health. S. S. S. contains no Potash or minerals of any description, but is guaranteed purely vegetable. Old people will find it not only the best blood purifier, but a most invigorating tonic—just such a remedy as they need to enrich the blood and quicken the circulation.

Whether you have Rheumatism in the acute or chronic stage, the treatment must be internal, deep and thorough, in order to be lasting. Never be satisfied with anything less than an absolutely perfect cure. This you can get by the use of S. S. S., the oldest and best purifier and greatest of all tonics.

Write us fully and freely about your case, and medical advice will be given without charge, and our special book on Rheumatism will be mailed free to all desiring it.

Clarksville at Jackson.

Other K. I. T. Games.

WENT TO WRONG CITY.

Vincennes, Ind., June 24—Henderson came here instead of going to Hopkinsville and won from Vincennes by a score of 5 to 2, but was notified that it had forfeited the game to Hopkinsville by not appearing.

HOPKINSVILLE WINS

EASY THIS TIME.
Hopkinsville, June 21—The Henderson club failed to arrive yesterday as per new schedule and the game was declared forfeited to Hopkinsville.

BROKE UP IN A ROW.

Jackson, Tenn., June 21—Catcher Holmes of the Clarksville team used profane language today and was ordered out of the game by the umpire. He declined to go and was taken out by police officers. The Clarksville players got mad and left the field, forfeiting the game to Jackson by a score of 11 to 0.

The prettiest and hardest fought game ever seen on a local diamond was that yesterday between Paducah and Cairo. The perennial baseball rivalry between the two cities brought out a regular Sunday crowd. The grandstand was filled with excited spectators, and everybody left well satisfied with the exhibition of ball playing they witnessed.

It was nip and tuck the whole time. Freeman did the twirling for Paducah, and Brockett, Cairo's star pitcher, who has lost only one game out of ten, was in the box for the visitors. For ten innings and a half goose eggs resulted, the batters often going out in one, two, three order.

The visitors could not hit Freeman, which is what probably accounts for the close game. The Egyptian pitcher was touched up for seven hits, but they were not boozohol and the fielding of the Cairo boys was first class.

Freeman lost his game by a wild to second baseman and too many tried to get it, the ball dropping. LeCompte hit to short and Perry was forced out. Connors struck out. Edmunds went out from pitcher to first. No runs.

THIRD INNING.

Cairo—Powers fanned. Schwab walked and stole second. Hughes struck out. Smith struck out. No runs.

Paducah—Fitzgerald fanned. Freeman went out on grounder to first. Clifford rapped one to center field fence for two bags. Girard flew out to center fielder. No runs.

FOURTH INNING.

Cairo—Brockett hit to third baseman for a base. Rutledge sacrificed from third to first. Wallace struck out. Crotty fanned. No runs.

Paducah—Murray flew out to catcher. Perry struck out. LeCompte singled to right. Connors struck out. No runs.

FIFTH INNING.

Cairo—Witt hit by pitched ball. Powers struck out. Schwab hit easy one and got first on bad throw and Witt died trying to steal home. Dummy Hughes struck out. No runs.

Paducah—Edmunds went out from short to first. Fitzgerald went out from second to first. Freeman went out from second to first. No runs.

SIXTH INNING.

Cairo—Smith went out from second to first. Brockett hit safe to short and stole second. Rutledge went out from second to first. Wallace flew out to Clifford. No runs.

Paducah—Clifford flew out to catcher. Girard went out from second to first. Murray hit to short and went to second on wild throw. Perry hit by pitched ball. LeCompte went out from short to first. No runs.

SEVENTH INNING.

Cairo—Crotty singled to left. Witt struck out and Crotty died at second. Powers fanned. No runs.

Paducah—Connors struck out. Edmunds singled over short's head. Fitzgerald struck and Freeman fouled out to first baseman. No runs.

EIGHTH INNING.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24 1908.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight. Thursday showers and cooler.

The Hopkinsville papers state that the members of the club while here "were mads sick by the impure water," but fail to report what brand it was or where they got it.

The seatmate against building "crooks" in the streets of Paducah is very pronounced and the two boards should think of the future before voting to order any offset streets anywhere.

The city officials are to meet Friday and fix the price of lots in Oak Grove cemetery. They had better not make them too high, as some of them are candidates and may need a quiet place to repose after the November election.

The administration seems to be having a hard time trying to enforce the law and insure justice for those who ought to have been getting it for so many years in some districts of Kentucky. They are holding conferences, speculating terms of court and fishfries, and occasionally asking changes of venue, in their efforts to divert the attention of the civilized world from crime-ridden Breathitt county. The easiest way to enforce law and order in Breathitt is to remove the cause of lawlessness, and this apparently cannot be done until Margis and his henchmen are dismissed from office and power.

The Democrats are never satisfied unless they are squabbling. There, for instance, are two of the recent candidates for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in this district still fighting over the nomination, and one charges that the other had the ballot boxes stuffed. Surely no Democrat would do such a thing, especially against another Democrat. The contest, however, could probably have been staved off. It is understood that the defeated candidate offered not to contest if the two offices of city attorney and prosecuting attorney of Paducah were consolidated and kindly given to him in November. As this is easier said than done, it is perhaps not difficult to understand why his proposition was not accepted, but it is a pity the contest was not stopped before it caused hard feelings.

There are supposed civilized districts in the state where the people go to church, denounce brutality, intemperance, immorality of every description and other vices, vote whiskey out regularly when the time comes, and still allow dogs to be cruelly and indiscriminately shot down in the streets, alleys and yards. There are a great many heartless, beastly, revolting things, but few are worse than having a man to go through the public streets and shoot innocent dogs, wounding them often in such a manner as to enable them to escape and suffer perhaps for days, endangering the lives of people who chance to be near when the murder takes place, and instilling into the juvenile mind a cruelty that years may not overcome.

FIGHTING WHISKEY.

WARM TIME ON IN MUILEN-
BECK COUNTY.

Central City, Ky., June 24—A hot fight is on between the temperance people and the whiskey people. Petitions are being circulated in all the precincts of Muhlenberg county praying that a poll be opened August 29 to take the sense of the voters in the county upon the subject.

Another petition is being circulated, and is receiving many signatures, to take the vote upon the matter separately in the town of Central City.

STOPS AT GRAYSON.

The fast passenger train No. 10, from Louisville to Memphis, will hereafter stop at Grayson Springs regularly.

GHASTLY FIND.

BODY OF A MURDERED WOMAN AND OF A MAN FOUND.

LaGrange, Ga., June 24—The bodies of W. E. Cooley, a prominent planter, who lived near here, and of Ida Anderson were discovered in Long Creek by a party of fishermen. The woman's head was crushed as if it had been struck with an ax. There were no marks on Mr. Cooley's body to indicate violence, but it is supposed that he threw himself into the stream. The couple had been missing for several days.

The woman's husband has been arrested, charged with murdering her and throwing the body into the stream.

It is supposed that Mr. Cooley, after deciding to drown himself, selected by accident the place where the murdered woman's body was found.

BIG OUTPUT.

ONE COMPANY TURNS OUT 1,000
LOCOMOTIVES IN SIX MONTHS.

If they are not disappointed in their expectations the Baldwin locomotive works will by July 1 have turned out the greatest number of finished engines in any six months in history.

The mark fixed by the officials as the production for the six months is 1000 locomotives, which is equivalent to two-thirds of the output for 1902, when more than 1500 engines were turned out, breaking all former records. For May the output was 160 machines, and the same number was turned out during April. Of the 1000 locomotives the great majority are on orders placed last year. The number taken this year will keep the works busy well into 1904.

A Large Number of Railroad Cases Considered—Young Man Skips.

Circuit court at Marion, Crittenden county, is over after a two weeks session.

One of the most interesting cases was that against Police Judge Yates, of Dyersburg, who was charged with disturbing a lawful assembly. It appears there had been a union Sunday school at Dyersburg and when an effort was made to organize one of some separate denomination the judge is alleged to have interfered and tried to prevent it. He was fined $20 and costs.

A young man named Sisco, charged with sedition, failed to answer and his bond was declared forfeited. He is supposed to have left the country.

LAWRENCE DEVLIN STATED TO INSTITUTE HABEAS CORPUS.

Officers have not yet arrived from Oklahoma after Lawrence Devlin, the man arrested night before last on a charge of bigamy, wanted at Woodward, Okla., but are expected today or tomorrow.

Yesterday Devlin sent for an attorney, after announcing that he would return without a requisition, and stated he was thinking of taking out a writ of habeas corpus and fighting the case, but the attorney advised him, it is understood, that the best thing to do was to go back, and he is now waiting for the sheriff to come after him.

"Eye strain" is a potent factor in the normal development of mind and body, and in causing and perpetuating physical ills. No child with defective eyes can be perfectly healthy. OVER THE FENCE

NEIGHBOR SAYS SOMETHING.

The front yard fence is a famous social place on pleasant days. Maybe to chat with some one along the street, or for friendly gossip with next door neighbor. Sometimes it is only small talk but other times a neighbor has something really good to offer.

An old resident of Baird, Tex., got some mighty good advice this way once. "Drinking coffee had left me nearly dead with dyspepsia, kidney disease and bowel trouble with constant pains in my stomach and back and side and so weak I could scarcely walk," he says.

"One day I was chatting with one of my neighbors about my trouble and told her I believed coffee hurt me.
Neighbor said she knew lots of people to whom coffee was a poison and she pleaded with me to quit it and give Postum a trial. I did not take her advice right away but tried a change of climate but it did not do me any good and then I dropped coffee and took up Postum.

"My improvement began immediately and I got better every day I used Postum.

"My bowels became regular and in two weeks all my pains were gone;
now I am well and strong and can eat anything I want to without distress. All of this is due to my having quit coffee and used Postum regularly.

"My son who was troubled with indigestion thought that if Postum helped me so it might help him. It did too and he is now well and strong again. We like the Postum as well as we ever liked the coffee and use it altogether in my family in place of coffee and all keep well." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

DECISION HERE

10:30 Closing Ordinance a Law
With Two Exceptions.

Screens Can be Required Taken Down,
According to Decision.

Copies of the court of appeals decision in the 10:30 closing ordinance opinion reached the city today and it is announced by those who have read it that it reverses Judge Hushaw on only one point, that in regard to screens. The opinion holds that saloons may under police regulation be closed at 10:30 p. m. and may require screens or blinds set aside when not open for business.

As to the going in or out of a saloon constituting incriminating evidence, that portion of the ordinance relative to wholesale liquor houses and the sale of liquor in drug stores, these points are already covered by law, or are unconstitutional.

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

C. S. Rhoads, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"For the past two years I have hardly known what it was to have a sweet, restful night's sleep. Care and overwork seemed to weigh me down more than it should or would have if I had been able to get my proper rest. My doctor was unable to help me and ordered me South for a complete rest and change. As this was simply out of the question, and as I had heard several of the men under me speak of how much Peruna had helped them, I decided to try it and am glad indeed that I did. Six bottles made a new man of me. I eat well, sleep well and get up feeling refreshed and rested.

"My official duties are not half so hard and I certainly have good reasons to heartily endorse Peruna."—C. S. Rhoads.

RUSSIA AND CHINA AGREE.

London, June 24—A dispatch to the Times from Pekin says that Russia and China have arrived at an agreement regarding Manchuria and New Chwang. Prince Chung, the dispatch adds, admits the fact, but declines to communicate the terms to the foreign ministers. He intimates that China neither seeks nor requires assistance or interference from Japan or Great Britain.

HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do, it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. F. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 500 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

M'KINLEY MEMORIAL.

TRUSTEES HAVE COLLECTED $600,000 AND WILL CALL FOR DESIGNS.

Cleveland, O., June 24—The trustees of the McKinley National Memorial Association met here today for the purpose of reviewing the work so far accomplished, and deciding upon future action. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Justice Day, the president of the association.

A report from the office of the association and also one from Treasurer Myron T. Herrick showed total contributions amounting to about $600,000, and it was decided that designs should be at once invited, to be inspected and acted upon at such time as the board may determine.

The trustees issued a statement in which they say that the monument and its proper maintenance will require an additional fund of $100,000, and they urgently request renewed efforts on the part of all interested in the work for the raising of this additional amount.

Mr. Lewis G. Reynolds of Dayton, O., founder of the Carnation League of America, made a proposal to the trustees that the members of the Carnation League be given an opportunity to assist to raise the $100,000 additional for an endowment fund. Mr. Reynolds said the league now numbered probably 125,000 persons, and he expected that it would number 1,000,000 before many months had passed. Senator Hanna's suggestion that Mr. Reynolds be authorized to solicit the members of the Carnation League in the work was approved.

Among those at the meeting were Justice Day, Senator Hanna, Senator Fairbanks, Secretary Cortelyou and Myron T. Herrick.

GRAUSTARK
...By...
GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert B. Stone

"You brute!" hissed the countess, with flashing, indignant eyes, throwing her arms about the princess and drawing her head to her breast.

"Forgive me," he cried, sinking to his knees before the princess, shame and contrition in his face. "I have been half mad this whole day, and I have thought harshly of you. I now see that you are suffering more intensely than I. I love Lorry, and that is my only excuse. He is being foully wronged, your highness, foully wronged."

"I deserve your contempt after all. Whether he be guilty or innocent, I should have refused to sign the decree, it is too late now. I have signed away something that is very dear to me—his life. You are his friend and mine. Can you tell me what he thinks of me—what he says—how he feels?" She asked the triple question breathlessly.

"He believes you were forced into the act, and said as much to me. As to how he feels, I can only ask how you would feel if you were in his place. Innocent and yet almost sure of conviction. These friends of Axphain will resort to any subterfuge now that one of their number has staked his life. Mark my word, some one will deliberately swear that he saw Grenfall Lorry strike the blow, and that will be as villainous a lie as man ever told. What I am here for, your highness, is to ask if that decree cannot be withdrawn."

"Alas, it cannot! I would gladly order his release if I could, but you can see what that would mean to us—a war, Sir. Anguish," she sighed miserably.

"But you will not see an innocent man condemned!" cried he, again indignant.

"I have only your statement for that, sir, if you will pardon me. I hope from the bottom of my heart that he did not murder the prince after being honorably challenged."

"He is no coward!" thundered Anguish, startling both women with his vehemence. "I say he did not kill the prince, but I'll strike my life he would have done so had they met this morning."

"He may be able to clear himself," suggested the countess nervously.

"And he may not; so there you have it. What chance have two Americans over here with everybody against us?"

"Stop! You shall not say that!" he said again impatiently. "He shall have full justle at any cost, and there is one here who is not against him!" cried the princess, with blushing eyes.

"I am aware that everybody admires him because he has done Graustark a service in ridding it of something obnoxious a prospective husband. But that does not get him out of jail."

"You are unkind again," said the princess slowly. "I chose my husband, and you assume much when you intimate that I am glad because he was murdered."

"Do not be angry," cried the countess impatiently. "We all regret what has happened, and I, for one, hope that Mr. Lorry may escape from the tower and laugh forevermore at his pursuers. If he could only dig his way out!"

The princess shot a startled look toward the speaker as a new thought entered her worried brain. A short, he announced their marriage and giddily giddily to housekeeping at Eleventh the Harrison streets.

The bride is the pretty daughter ex-Policeman Willis Morgan and popular young lady. The groom is a fireman on the I. C. road and many friends.

Mrs. L. W. Pratt returned to Louisville, Ky., today after a visit with her sister Mrs. W. A. Davis.

the bottle that was inflicting him with its curse. Suddenly he darted to the door, crying:

"Then I refuse to obey! Tell her that if she permits me to leave this hole I shall be at her feet before another night has passed. Say to her that I refuse to go from Graustark until I have seen her and talked with her. You, Quinnox, go to her now and tell her this, and say to her also that there is something she must hear from my own lips. Then I will leave Graustark, and not till then, even though death be the alternative." The two men stared at him in amazement and consternation.

"You will not escape!" gasped Quinnox.

"I will not be dragged away without seeing her," he answered resolutely, throwing himself on the bed.

"Confounded young ass!" growled Dangliss. The soldier's teeth gritted. A moment later the slab door closed softly, a key rattled and his visitors were gone—messengers bearing to him the most positive proof of devotion that man could exact.

He looked at his hands and saw the black stains from the charred letter, last evidence of the crime against the state. A tender light came to his eyes, a great lump struggled to his throat, and he kissed the sooty spots, murmuring her name again and again. How lonely he was! How cold and cheerless his cage! For the first time he began to appreciate the real seriousness of his position. Up to this time he had regarded it optimistically, confident of vindication and acquittal. He grew cold and shuddered instinctively as he realized that his position was so critical that the princess had deemed it necessary to resort to strategic measures in order to save him from impending doom. Starting to his feet, he paced the floor, nervousness turning to dread, dread to terror. He pounded on the door and cried aloud. Oh, if he could but bring back those kindly messengers!

Exhausted, torn by conflicting emotions, he at last dropped to the bed and buried his face in his arms, nearly mad with the sudden solitude of despair. He recalled her dear letter, the tender, helping hand that had been stretched out to lift him from the depths into which he was sinking. She had written—he could see the words plainly—that his danger was great; she could not endure life until she knew him to be safely outside the bounds of Graustark. His life was dear to her, and she would preserve it by disowning her trust. Then she had unfolded her plan of escape, definitely, guiltily, hopefully.

Exhausted, torn by conflicting emotions, he at last dropped to the bed and buried his face in his arms, nearly mad with the sudden solitude of despair. His life was dear to her, and she would preserve it by disowning her trust. Then she had unfolded her plan of escape, definitely, guiltily, hopefully.

But she was offering him freedom only to send him away without granting one moment of joy in her presence. After all, with death staring him in the face, the practically convicted murderer of a prince, he knew he could not have gone without seeing her. He had been ungrateful perhaps, but the message he had sent to her was from his heart, and something told him that it would give her pleasure.

A key turned suddenly in the lock and his heart bounded with the hope that it might be some one with her arraigned in response to his ultimatum. He sat upright and rubbed his swollen eyes. The door swung open, and a tall prison guard peered in upon him, a sharp-eyed, low-browed fellow in uniform and helmet. His lantern's single unkind eye was turned menacingly toward the

Correct Summer Clothing The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thi' clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and belt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. Cairo—Rutledge, pitcher; Clark, pitcher; Hughes, cf, base; Smith, second base; Witt, third base; Crotty, short stop; Wallace, left field; Powers, center field; Schwab, right field.

Paducah—Clifford, catcher; Girard, pitcher; Fitzgerald, first base; Edmunds, second base; Connors, third base; LeCompte, short stop; Murray, left field; Gage, center field; Potts, right field.

A LITTLE DOPE.

Freeman had thirteen strike-outs yesterday.

Well, we don't know so much about slandering Cairo.

Langford umpired well yesterday and gave satisfaction to all.

A good hit, well placed, yesterday would have won the game.

The Cairo boys have to turn in at 10 o'clock at night or be fined.

Willie LeCompte always gets 'em, even if he has to lay down on them.

The visitors found when they sent their skyrockets out to left field that there was somebody there. Kenny Murray attended to their case.

One fan had a cow bell yesterday. Paducah not only has the reputation for large attendance, but is also entitled to a medal or two for rooters.

Cairo's first baseman is "Dummy" Hughes, who was said never to fan. He fanned yesterday all right, not making connection with the ball for a single hit.

The fans were delighted yesterday. Today the crowd promises to be larger than yesterday. Tomorrow, ladies' day—well, the park won't hold them, that's all.

The Cairo fans who waited patiently at home yesterday for news of the game had little to crow over. The Egyptians won because they were a little luckier than Paducah.

Gage, the new player from Michigan, arrived today and will play in the field today. Girard, who has been playing in the field, will not be played thereon, but will pitch exclusively.

Paducah's new third baseman hasn't done much with the stick yet, but that's all right. It takes a good man to cover third, which is one of the most difficult on the diamond, and if he can field well we can excuse his inability to hit hard.

Cark will pitch this afternoon for will doubtless be out.

Freeman pitched out of his time yesterday and will not be placed in again before Sunday, when Paducah plays at Cairo. There were but few Cairo fans here yesterday and Manager Jackson wants the Cairo sports to see what a real live pitcher looks like.

The K. L. T. League ought to put in official umpires and get together on schedule. Yesterday one club went to the wrong city to play, Henderson going to Vincennes when Vincennes is not supposed to be in the league now. The idea of not having a baseball game in Paducah Fourth of July, when Paducah is the best city in the league for baseball, shows an inexcusable lack of common sense in preparing the schedule. If there is not better management the league cannot expect to last the season.

By "X-Rays."

Just for once won't you try a pair of shoes that are not made from guesswork measurements of what your foot ought to be, but from "X-ray" photographs of what women's feet really are?

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is exactly shaped to the bones, muscles, and ligaments of the foot, as they are plainly revealed by "X-ray" photograph. This is the explanation of why you hear so much talk on all sides about the wonderful "Fit of a Dorothy Dodd." The shoe deserves its popular nickname of "an arrangement in comfort." But all this is of no help to you unless you own a pair. On the day you buy them you will learn a new lesson in Foot Comfort.

After that, no one can sell you any other shoe but a "Dorothy Dodd."

Sincerely yours,

DOROTHY DODD.
